ABOUT MEDS

MEDS' emergency physician staffing and management solutions maximize emergency department performance.

“Because we provide high quality care in a compassionate and cost-effective way, we enjoy one of the highest client and physician retention rates in the industry.”

William Cruzen, DO, FAAEP
Chairman & Founder

Len Glover, DO, FACEP
Chief Medical Officer

Our team is backed by technology and operational resources to help implement targeted improvement plans.

ABOUT MEDS

Our company is built upon delivering quality, utilizing our expertise, and developing lasting relationships with hospitals and physicians.

Quality.

Optimal patient care plus operational success.

Since 1983, we've helped emergency departments reach their full potential, providing outstanding patient care and achieving successful performance. Our team of highly qualified physicians and our customized performance improvement plans make a real difference for both hospitals and patients.

Expertise.

Years of experience, put to work for you.

MEDS is led by people who know emergency medicine — our two owners have more than 45 years of combined clinical experience, and our CEO has dedicated 30 years to emergency department management. You'll work with people who understand the challenges of emergency medicine and have the resources and support to deliver quality results.

Relationships.

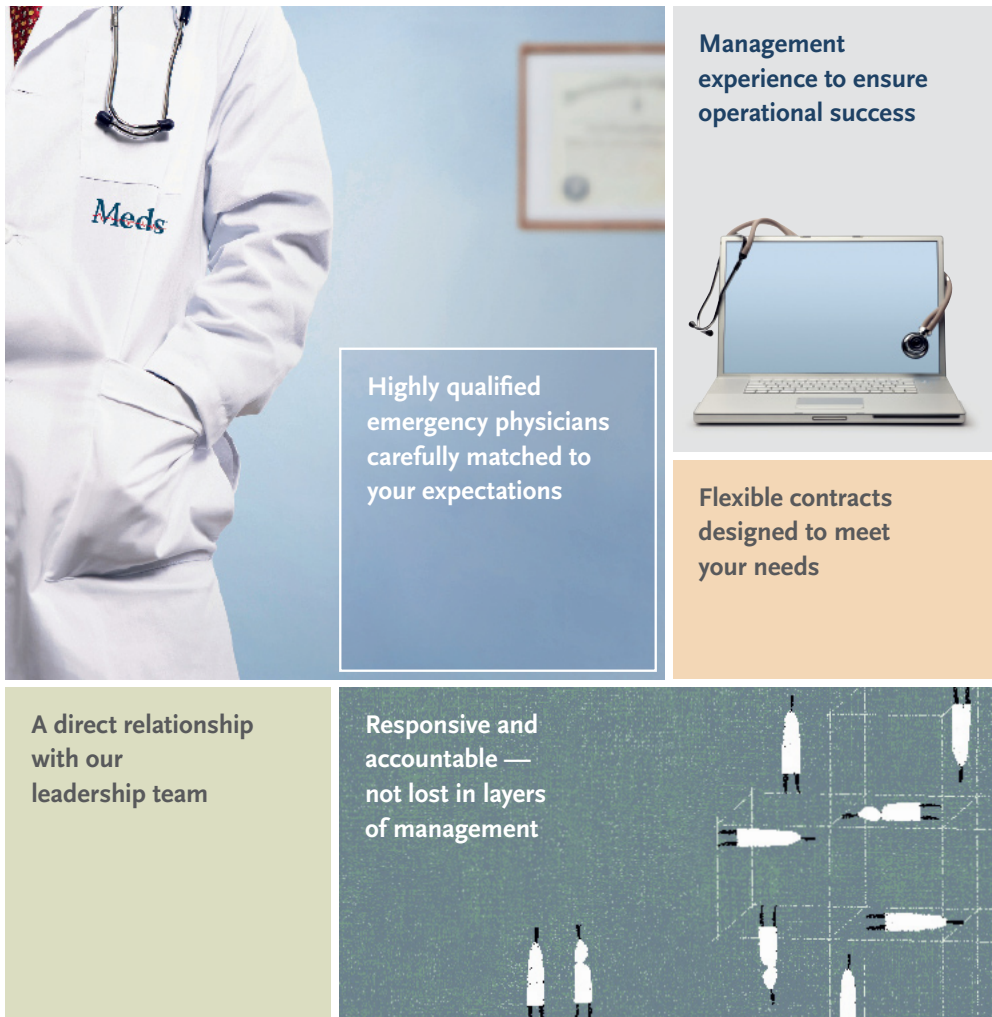

The team you know today is the team you know tomorrow.

We develop real relationships with our clients and physicians, and our commitment and accountability aren't lost in layers of management. Hospitals and physicians who choose MEDS stay with MEDS because we're accessible, responsive, and committed to their success.
